DSP Yellow Flag Appreciation Day September 12 at the Statehouse

The Yellow Flag Appreciation Day started in New Hampshire and has become a national day of recognition for the people who do the good work of support in the field of disabilities.

We are hoping to have many DSPs and people they support at this event. The event runs from 12 to 4 with a short formal program starting at 1pm. Show your appreciation this Friday by joining the Governor at the Statehouse to say Thank You to our state's DSPs.

Autism Information: Sept 22, 4 - 6 PM at The Moore Center

Our guest speaker is Beth Dixon from the UNH Institute on Disability. Beth is the parent of four children and grandparent of four. She has a grown son with Autism and is dedicated to improving the lives of individuals with disabilities, their families, and their communities. As a result of Beth's leadership and organizational talents, over 800 individuals with disabilities, their families, and graduate students have been trained in evidence-based practices to improve their lives.
