Active Bystander Training for Developmental Disabilities Advocates

In a time when people are quicker to express anger and more likely to be angry at people “not like them”, many of us are seeking tools to respond effectively to such biased anger.

Granite State Organizing Project
A Voice For Justice

The Granite State Organizing Project and the NH Council on Developmental Disabilities is offering a virtual bystander training for developmental disabilities advocates that will give tools and insights to use in such situations and a chance to think about how you might use them.

In this highly interactive session, we present information, share experiences, and strategize bystander responses to a variety of situations. Participants will learn about

- Roles we all play
- What discourages us from acting when we see harm doing
- How to move through this resistance
- Tools to use when we are ready
- Basic principles to guide our actions

Future Planning for Spanish Caregivers

Future Planning for Spanish Caregivers: It's Possible and Necessary

Experience shows that people with disabilities make a better transition from the family home when a future plan is in place. A future plan can also provide peace of mind for caregivers of people with IDD. Learn from staff at The Arc of the United States on how to get these discussions started and the steps your family should take to create a future plan.

Learn from The Arc staff how to start these discussions and the steps your family should take to create a future plan. This presentation will also provide an overview of The Arc's Future Planning Center website and resources that can help facilitate discussions to create a future plan.

Hacer planes para el futuro es importante para todas las familias. Pensar en el futuro puede ser emotivo y desafiante. Sin embargo, la experiencia muestra que los adultos con discapacidades logran una mejor transición de la casa familiar cuando tienen un plan futuro. Tener un plan también le puede dar tranquilidad a los cuidadores de las personas con discapacidades intelectuales y de desarrollo.

Aprenda de personal de The Arc cómo empezar estas discusiones y los pasos que su familia debe seguir para crear un plan futuro. Esta presentación también proporcionará una descripción general del sitio web del Centro de Planificación Futura de The Arc y de los recursos que pueden ayudar a facilitar las discusiones para crear un plan futuro.

These webinars will only be available in Spanish.

Session 1: June 8.

Session 2 : June 15

Widening the Circle: Pathways to Friendship

Friendship Develops Where You...

The Pathways collaboration explores the benefits of relationships between people with disabilities and people without disabilities, and provides information about resources to help interested individuals engage in and sustain those relationships.

Pathways to Friendship has released a new toolkit focusing on Building Friendships: A Toolkit for Community Recreation, Cultural, and Faith Organizations.

This toolkit provides practical ideas, strategies, and tactics that you can use to welcome people with disabilities into your organizations and lives. It also discusses how to overcome barriers and help people become full participants in their community.

There are videos, downloadable documents, and other valuable resources. Check it all out on their website through the link below.

Organizing For Change: Community Organizing Tools To Strategically Create Change

A message from ABLE NH:

Hello friends of ABLE NH,

We're reaching out to share information about the Tuesday evening community organizing trainings that ABLE NH is hosting. We hope that you'll join us to learn about ableism and disability justice, or to sign up for a future session.

While our trainings will use the lens of disability justice, the tools are applicable across all social justice campaigns. Training content is sequential each month, however each session can also be a standalone training. Attend one session or all four!

These trainings are a great introduction for beginners, or a good review for experienced activists. Read more below.
