Need Gifts? Do Some Worthwhile Local Shopping

Chances are you have a gift, or two or more, to buy during this upcoming holiday season. With that in mind, we'd ask that you consider supporting entrepreneurs with intellectual disabilities. Your purchase will help each self-advocate advance towards their goal of achieving independent living.

There are many different gifts from candles, bath products and socks to cookies, popcorn and puppy treats. We hope you can find something for someone on your list to give a gift with meaning and purpose. It's also comforting knowing that your gifts are made in the USA and not sitting on a container ship in the middle of the Pacific!

Let's celebrate and support these entrepreneurs!

Micah is a Moore Center client and makes amazing tie-dyed products. You can see his collection of available goods here:
