Governor's Version of State Budget Coming Today

The House and Senate will be meeting in joint convention on Valentine's Day at 1 p.m. to hear the Governor's budget address. The speech will give an overview of what the Governor's priorities are in the next two years.

Gov. Sununu's budget plan should be posted online by early afternoon. This is only "act two" of the "five act" state budget play. We expect the House Finance committee to get to work immediately on crafting their version of a state spending plan, a budget that will go into effect in four short months!
