Charting the LifeCourse Information and Planning Event

charting the LIFECOURSE
NEXUS

Individuals, Families and Professionals are invited to join NH's Community of Practice to learn about Charting the LifeCourse and how it can be used for person-centered planning at every life stage and for all areas of a person's life.

This event is designed to share information about Charting the LifeCourse and get your feedback on how it can be helpful to you in your role.

This event will:

- Introduce the Charting the LifeCourse Framework

as a foundation
for planning
a good life.

- Explore your role in long term and short term planning across the lifespan.
- Inspire person centered journeys by providing examples and strategies.
- Create an opportunity for reflection and brainstorming for how this framework can be used for person-centered planning.

Positive Behavioral Interventions

and Supports

From the ARC of MA:

On March 6, Bob Putnam will join Leo on March 6 at noon. Our topic is “Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports.”

The Department of Developmental Disabilities has adopted PBIS as a framework for all of its services. Bob is the Executive Vice President of Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports at the May Institute. He is a nationally-funded partner of the National Technical Assistance Center for PBIS (pbis.org). This is the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Special Education's technical assistance center for the training, dissemination, and research on positive behavior support.

PBIS has been implemented in over 30,000 schools nationwide. He serves as the content expert for students with disabilities.

An author of 40 briefs, chapters, and books, he has worked in the field of IDD for over 50 years. Bob is highly respected and a wonderful colleague as well. Click below to register.
