

UNH-4U is Accepting Applications for Fall 2024

A message from the UNH Institute on Disability:

Applications are now being accepted UNH-4U for students to start in fall 2024.

UNH-4U is an inclusive postsecondary education program for students with intellectual disability, ages 18-24. UNH-4U students are immersed in campus life at UNH and take classes that are aligned with their career goals. Students have the option to live on campus.

To learn more about UNH-4U, visit our FAQs on our website. To learn more about the application process, eligibility, and fill out an application, visit our application webpage.

Applications will be accepted until January 26 at 11:59pm.

We look forward to reviewing your application!

Behavior change following moderate and severe traumatic brain injury (TBI) is common, and can contribute to significant stress for individuals and their families. The kinds of behavior changes and how long they persist depend on multiple factors including injury location and severity, as well as an individual's access to adequate support and interventions in the time following an injury.

This presentation will create an opportunity for discussion around why changes in behavior occur and how to decrease the likelihood of challenging behaviors during the recovery process.
