Bureau of Developmental Services Individuals and Family Survey

The Bureau of Developmental Services (BDS) is excited to announce the release of the Individuals and Family Survey. We want to hear about what's going well for you and your family, and also what can be done differently. We're also curious to know what topics or resources you'd like to learn more about. Please find the survey link below.

Thank you in advance for your feedback and feel free to reach out with any questions!

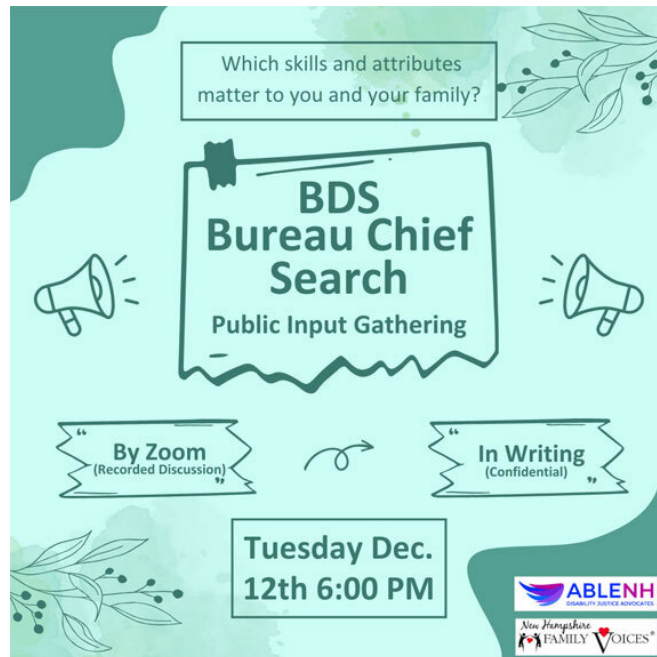

Thank you,
Bureau of Developmental Services

UNH Institute on Disability Sessions

University of New Hampshire

Institute on Disability

You're invited to attend information sessions for two programs run by the Institute on Disability for transition age youth: The Bridges Training Series and UNH-4U.

The Bridges Training Series

The Bridges Training Series, offered through the Institute on Disability at the University of New Hampshire (UNH), is an online college and career training series designed to prepare young adults, ages 18–24, with intellectual and/or developmental disabilities for higher education, independent living, and careers.

To learn more about the Bridges Training Series, review Frequently Asked Questions on our website.

UNH-4U

UNH-4U is an inclusive postsecondary education program for young adults with intellectual disability, ages 18-24, at the University of New Hampshire. At UNH-4U, students attend classes, engage in campus life, and work towards their career goals.

You can register for an information session here to learn more about UNH-4U and applying for the 2024-2025 school year.

Please reach out to us if you have any questions. You can contact the Bridges Training Series at iod.bridges@unh.edu or UNH-4U at unh4u.durham@unh.edu
