Come Join YEAH Council!

What does YEAH stand for?

Youth for Education, Advocacy, and Healthcare

What is YEAH Council?

We are a youth-led group for people ages 14-26 with health conditions and disabilities of all kinds. We are an inclusive and supportive community. Our projects focus on advocacy and empowerment in education and healthcare.

Our work directly impacts the quality of life for youth with disabilities and chronic health conditions in NH.

We meet monthly on zoom

Can't make it to meetings? No worries! There are plenty of other ways to get involved.

BE PART OF THE CHANGE! WE NEED YOUR HELP TO PUT THE SHARED STANDARDS INTO ACTION! COME JOIN US!

Individuals, Families and Professionals are invited to join NH's Community of Practice to give feedback on shared standards and value statements that have been developed for person-centered practices in NH.

These events are designed to share the standards we've created together. Your feedback will be used to shape how the standards and value statements will be used to help inform person centered practices across the services families use.

These Events Will:

- Introduce the Shared Standards and Value Statements and the process used for creating them.
- Explore the alignment of the Shared Standards and the DHHS Roadmap.
- Learn how you can use the standards and receive informational tools. Join with others and stay involved!

NH State Library Talking Books

The Talking Books Program exists to meet the reading needs and interests of New Hampshire residents who are physically unable to see, handle or process printed material comfortably.

Borrow the easy-to-use audio player and get books through the mail. Or listen anytime on your mobile device and many e-readers.

BARD is available for those who would like to download books. BARD is a collection of over 50,000 audiobooks and magazines and braille materials available for eligible readers to download.

The collection grows daily, and will soon include local and regional books produced by network libraries across the country.

The Talking Books Program is funded in part by the Institute for Museum and Library Services (IMLS) through the Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA).

Contact the State Library for more information about applying to this program.

The Autism Council is pleased to announce the nomination of two new members to the New Hampshire Council on Autism Spectrum Disorders.

Amy Rheaume of Derry is a parent of a child who experiences Autism.

Kelly Ehrhart of Nashua is an individual with a disability.

With two nominees moving forward for appointment to the council, that leaves us with three at-large seats available.

Are you interested or know someone who may be interested in joining the council? Please email the council administrator at casdnh@gmail.com.

Apply for gubernatorial appointment to the NHCASD!

The New Hampshire Council on Autism Spectrum Disorders has two open seats available that are appointed by our Governor. If you are interested in applying, please submit your interest
