

The Moore Center
Creating opportunities for a good life.™

The Moore Center welcomes new members to its board of directors

Area leaders bring years of experience in various industries; will serve three-year terms

MANCHESTER, N.H. – February 17, 2026 – The Moore Center, a Manchester-based nonprofit providing services to individuals with developmental and intellectual disabilities and acquired brain disorders as well as services to children and senior citizens, recently named five area leaders to their board of directors, strengthening the agency’s ties to the Greater Manchester community.

The new members of the board include Max Latona, executive director of the Office of Partnerships at Saint Anselm College; Deanna Zanella, associate vice president, ceremonies and protocol officer at SNHU; Michelle DeLois, chief financial officer, Denron Hall Plumbing & HVAC; Garrett Kelley, chief financial officer, Optiline Enterprises LLC; and Cherrie Murray, executive assistant and HR coordinator, Franklin VNA & Hospice. All will serve three-year terms with the Manchester-based nonprofit organization.

“We are thrilled to add these business and community leaders to our already robust board of directors,” said Michael Ames, PhD, president and chief executive officer at The Moore Center. “Creating opportunities for a good life for the people we serve is only possible with the involvement of the whole community. I am confident our new board members will bring unique perspectives and ideas to the essential work that we do.”

The board also elected a new Vice Chair/Chair Elect, Mackenzie Fraser, senior vice president at EVR Advertising. She joins Board Chair Preston Hunter, vice president of business development at PROCON; Secretary Tina Legere; Treasurer Dan Cronin, president of CGI Business Solutions; and Past Chair, Sue Majewski, chief operating officer at Bedford Ambulatory Surgical Center, in helping to lead the organization this year.

About The Moore Center

The Moore Center is an award-winning, statewide nonprofit with a legacy of serving others for over 70 years. It provides compassionate, high-quality, cost-effective services for individuals of all ages – from early intervention for children to community-based and residential supports for adults with developmental disabilities, as well as home care for seniors who wish to remain independent. Guided by a commitment to dignity, inclusion and opportunity, The Moore Center also provides training for the human services workforce. To learn more, visit moorecenter.org.

###

Media Contact:

Barbara Didona, Director of Training and Communications

barbara.didona@moorecenter.org

Shannon Sullivan, Chief Advancement Officer

shannon.sullivan@moorecenter.org