

The Moore Center
Creating opportunities for a good life.™

The Moore Center welcomes new chief financial officer

Mahesh Bhatia brings years of expertise and leadership experience to Manchester agency

MANCHESTER, N.H. – July 7, 2026 – The Moore Center, a Manchester-based nonprofit providing services to individuals with developmental and intellectual disabilities and acquired brain disorders as well as services to children and senior citizens, recently hired experienced financial leader Mahesh Bhatia as chief financial officer.

In this role, Bhatia provides strategic leadership for The Moore Center's finance and business operations, partnering with the executive leadership team and Board of Directors to ensure long-term financial sustainability in support of the organization's mission.

Bhatia, who is a certified public accountant (CPA), a chartered accountant (CA) from India and a certified merger and acquisition advisor (CM&AA), joined The Moore Center after serving in senior financial leadership roles across nonprofit and corporate organizations in the United States, Canada, the United Arab Emirates and India.

"I'm pleased to join The Moore Center and to support the agency's important work," said Bhatia. "I'm committed to developing strong teams and advancing sound financial leadership to help the organization innovate, grow and expand its impact for the individuals it serves."

He has led financial transformation initiatives focused on strengthening financial stewardship, modernizing systems and streamlining processes while fostering a culture of accountability, financial prudence and continuous improvement.

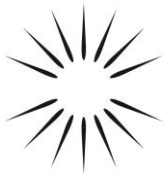

"We are excited to have Mahesh join our team as Chief Financial Officer," said Michael Ames, Ph. D., president and chief executive officer at The Moore Center. "Mahesh is a rare financial leader who brings a strong mission-focused commitment along with terrific experience and knowledge to the position."

About The Moore Center

The Moore Center is an award-winning, statewide nonprofit with a legacy of serving others for over 70 years. It provides compassionate, high-quality, cost-effective services for individuals of all ages – from early intervention for children to community-based and residential supports for adults with developmental disabilities, as well as home care for seniors who wish to remain independent. Guided by a commitment to dignity, inclusion and opportunity, The Moore Center also provides training for the human services workforce. To learn more, visit moorecenter.org.

###

Media Contact:
Barbara Didona, Director of Communications

The Moore Center
Creating opportunities for a good life.™

barbara.didona@moorecenter.org

Shannon Sullivan, Chief Advancement Officer
shannon.sullivan@moorecenter.org